

Figure 8 does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Figure 8 offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations or other businesses. The amount of each type of Client is available on Figure 8's Form ADV Part 1A. These amounts may change over time and are updated at least annually by Figure 8.

Figure 8's investment management services generally require a minimum account size for establishing a relationship of $250,000 to effectively implement its investment process. Figure 8 has discretion to reduce these minimums and will do so based on Client circumstances to be reviewed on an individual basis.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

Equity Strategy

The Figure 8 Global Equity Strategy is an actively managed portfolio of US and international stocks. The strategy seeks to deliver competitive risk-adjusted investment returns over the long term and integrates analysis of environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors throughout the stock selection process. Portfolio holdings can be customized to reflect specific investment and/or ESG goals.

The strategy begins with macroeconomic analysis incorporating forecasts for US and global growth, inflation, interest rates and income trends, along with an analysis of geopolitical events, demographics, and key thematic areas including health and wellness, climate change, and international economic development. From this, Figure 8's analysts develop top-down allocation strategies around geographic, capitalization and sector weightings.

This macroeconomic approach is paired with a bottom-up stock selection process that uses fundamental analysis seeking to identify high-quality companies as investment candidates, especially those where ESG factors are driving growth opportunities and/or minimizing business risks in a material way. The analysis of each individual security includes reviewing company financial statements; assessment of financial strength and stability; industry and company-specific opportunities, innovation and risks; quality of management; outlook for near-term and long-term revenue and earnings growth; the company's positioning for expected changes in the geopolitical and regulatory landscape; and multiple other factors. Finally, Figure 8 employs a growth-at-a-reasonable-price ("GARP") discipline to purchase stocks at attractive valuations that its analysts believe don't fully reflect their long-term value.

While the core of Figure 8's equity approach is actively managed individual stocks, Figure 8 also uses mutual funds and exchange-traded funds (ETFs) to augment exposures based on market conditions. In specific situations, Figure 8 may also employ private equity funds to meet Client financial and social impact objectives. Figure 8's evaluation of funds includes an analysis of the investment discipline, skill of the management team, integration of ESG factors and sensitivity around fees and transparency. Figure 8 often employs mutual funds and ETFs to provide additional exposure in certain market segments, particularly international and smaller capitalization stocks.

Fixed Income Strategy

Figure 8's Fixed Income Strategy is designed to provide portfolio stability and to generate income. Figure 8 manages the core of its fixed income portfolio in individual securities – typically a diversified blend of high-quality government and corporate bonds, along with federally tax-free municipal bonds where they are deemed to provide returns competitive on an after-tax basis. Figure 8's bond portfolios are comprised of securities rated as investment-grade by the credit agencies (e.g., S&P, Moody's).

Figure 8's bond portfolios typically incorporate a focus on "green bonds," a relatively new designation which applies to securities that are identical to conventional bonds with the exception that they must finance projects generating benefits for the environment or underserved populations. Green bonds may be issued by corporations, municipalities or government agencies.

Figure 8 may also use other vehicles in constructing its fixed income portfolios, including mutual funds, ETFs and/or private placements and promissory notes targeted for social impact. As with equity mutual funds, Figure 8's evaluation of fixed income funds includes an analysis of the investment discipline, skill of the management team, integration of ESG factors and sensitivity around fees and transparency. All vehicles are selected to fit with the stability-oriented goals of the fixed income segment, and may provide targeted opportunities for social impact, sometimes on a local level.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. Figure 8 will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals.

While the methods of analysis help Figure 8 in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in these methods of analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. Figure 8 monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on Figure 8's review process are included below in Item 13 – Review of Accounts.

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the Client's investment goals, financial situation, time horizon, tolerance for risk and other factors to develop an appropriate strategy for managing a Client's account. Client participation in this process, including full and accurate disclosure of requested information, is essential for the analysis of a Client's account. Figure 8 shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform Figure 8 of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The risks associated with a particular strategy are provided to each Client in advance of investing Client accounts. Figure 8 will work with each Client to determine their tolerance for risk as part of the portfolio construction process. Following are some of the risks associated Figure 8's strategy:

Market Risks

The value of a Client's holdings may fluctuate in response to events specific to companies or markets, as well as economic, political, or social events in the U.S. and abroad. This risk is linked to the performance of the overall financial markets.

ETF Risks

The performance of ETFs is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The price of the ETFs will fluctuate with the price of the underlying securities that make up the funds. In addition, ETFs have a trading risk based on the loss of cost efficiency if the ETFs are traded actively and a liquidity risk if the ETFs has a large bid-ask spread and low trading volume. The price of an ETF fluctuates based upon the market movements and may dissociate from the index being tracked by the ETF or the price of the underlying investments. An ETF purchased or sold at one point in the day may have a different price than the same ETF purchased or sold a short time later.

Mutual Fund Risks

The performance of mutual funds is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The price of the mutual funds will fluctuate with the value of the underlying securities that make up the funds. The price of a mutual fund is typically set daily therefore a mutual fund purchased at one point in the day will typically have the same price as a mutual fund purchased later that same day.

Smaller Company Risk

Small and medium sized companies are often more susceptible to changing conditions and their stock values may be more volatile. Risks are generally higher for the equity securities of smaller companies than for larger companies.

Social Investment Risk

Social investment portfolios have demonstrated that, over the long-term, there has been no sacrifice of risk-adjusted investment returns when compared with major market benchmarks. However, in the shorter term, portfolios invested with avoidance screens may be prevented from participating in outperforming segments of the markets, presenting specific short-term risk.

Private Placements Risk

Private placements carry a substantial risk as they are subject to less regulation than publicly offered securities. The markets to resell these assets under applicable securities laws may be illiquid, due to restrictions, and the liquidation may be taken at a substantial discount to the underlying value or result in the entire loss of the value of such assets.

Venture Capital Risk

Venture capital funds invest in start-up companies at an early stage of development in the interest of generating a return through an eventual realization event; the risk is high as a result of the uncertainty involved at that stage of development.

Community Investment Risk

Figure 8's investments include community investment promissory notes. These are debt instruments issued by companies, organizations and nonprofits that allow individual investors, rather than a bank, to provide financing. These investments are not insured, do not carry an investment grade and have the risk of default—issuers of promissory notes are making a promise to repay the lender. Investors should also recognize that notes are illiquid and can tie up money for extended periods of time.

Figure 8 purchases promissory notes from companies and organizations dedicated to community development. Promissory notes carry a risk of loss, including the loss of the full investment, and are only recommended when they align with a Client's investment objectives, risk tolerance and time horizon.

Alternative Investments

The performance of alternative investments can be volatile and may have limited liquidity. An investor could lose all or a portion of their investment. Such investments often have concentrated positions and investments that may carry higher risks. Client should only have a portion of their assets in these investments.

Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs")

Investing in Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs") involves certain distinct risks in addition to those risks associated with investing in the real estate industry in general. Equity REITs may be affected by changes in the value of the underlying property owned by the REITs, while mortgage REITs may be affected by the quality of credit extended. REITs are subject to heavy cash flow dependency, default by borrowers and self-liquidation. REITs, especially mortgage REITs, are also subject to interest rate risk (i.e., as interest rates rise, the value of the REIT may decline).

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving Figure 8 or any of its Supervised Persons. Figure 8 values the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are available on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching by with our firm name or our CRD# 282973.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

A-B. Financial Registration and Affiliations

Neither Figure 8 nor the Advisory Persons have any registrations or affiliations with a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity-trading advisor.

C. Material Relationships

Neither Figure 8 nor the Advisory Persons is licensed to sell insurance.

D. Selection of Other Advisors

Board Membership

Ms. Cooper, in her separate capacity, serves on the board of Mofi, a charitable organization whose mission is to provide financing and consulting services that transform the lives of individuals and strengthen community prosperity. MoFi is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is certified by the US Treasury Department as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). MoFi issues simple promissory notes which may be recommended to Clients.

Prior to recommending investments in MoFi, Figure 8 will conduct appropriate due diligence to ensure any recommendation to a Client to invest aligns with the Client's investment needs and objectives. In addition, Figure 8 will provide additional disclosure information to each Client, which will include relevant details regarding the board membership arrangement. Finally, there is no requirement for Figure 8 to recommend an investment in MoFi to Clients, nor are Clients obligated to invest.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

Figure 8 has implemented a Code of Ethics (the "Code") that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code applies to all persons associated with Figure 8 (our "Supervised Persons"). The Code was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. Figure 8 and its Supervised Persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of Figure 8's Supervised Persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code, please contact us at (208) 385-0078 or via email at info@figure8investing.com.

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

Figure 8 allows its Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Figure 8 does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, Figure 8 does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. Figure 8 does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

Figure 8 allows its Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities recommended to you, for purchase or sale, presents a conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, Figure 8 must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, Figure 8 has adopted the Code to address insider trading (material non-public information controls); gifts and entertainment; outside business activities and personal securities reporting. When trading for personal accounts, Supervised Persons may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Figure 8 requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its Supervised Persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”) or delegate. Figure 8 has also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, nonpublic information.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While Figure 8 allows Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will Figure 8, or any Supervised Person of Figure 8, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

Figure 8 does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will engage the broker-dealer/custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Figure 8 to direct trades to this Custodian as agreed upon in the investment advisory agreement. Further, Figure 8 does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of its Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Figure 8 does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, Figure 8 will typically recommend the Custodian to Clients for custody and execution services. Clients are not obligated to use the Custodian recommended by Figure 8 and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a Custodian not recommended by Figure 8. However, Figure 8 may be limited in the services it can provide if the recommended Custodian is not engaged. Figure 8 may recommend the Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, its reputation and/or the location of the Custodian’s offices. Figure 8 will generally recommend that Clients establish their account[s] at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (“Schwab”), a FINRA-registered broker-dealer and member SIPC. Schwab will serve as the Client’s “qualified custodian”. Figure 8 maintains an institutional relationship with Schwab, whereby Figure 8 receives economic benefits from Schwab. Please see Item 14 below.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of Figure 8:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers/custodians whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with a broker-dealer/custodian in exchange for research and other services. Figure 8 does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer/custodian. However, Figure 8 does receive certain economic benefits from Schwab. Please see Item 14.

2. Brokerage Referrals - Figure 8 does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a “directed brokerage basis”, where Figure 8 will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective account[s] at the Custodian. Figure 8 will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor’s own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client’s account[s]). Figure 8 will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the Custodian. Figure 8 will execute its transactions through the Custodian as authorized by the Client. Figure 8 may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the Custodian for multiple (discretionary) accounts in the same trading day. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently advantage or disadvantage any particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by Ms. Cooper, President and Chief Compliance Officer of Figure 8. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account[s]. The Client is encouraged to notify Figure 8 if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s]. Figure 8 may also provide Clients with periodic reports regarding their holdings, allocations, and performance.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Compensation Received by Figure 8

Figure 8 is a fee-only advisory firm, who, in all circumstances, is compensated solely by the Client. Figure 8 does not receive commissions or other compensation from product sponsors, broker dealers or any unrelated third party. Figure 8 may refer Clients to various third parties to provide certain financial services necessary to meet the goals of its Clients. Likewise, Figure 8 may receive referrals of new Clients from a third-party.

Participation in an Institutional Advisor Platform

Figure 8 has established an institutional relationship with Schwab through its "Schwab Advisor Services" unit, a division of Schwab dedicated to serving independent advisory firms like Figure 8. As a registered investment advisor participating on the Schwab Advisor Services platform, Figure 8 receives access to software and related support without cost because Figure 8 renders investment management services to Clients that maintain assets at Schwab. Services provided by Schwab Advisor Services benefit Figure 8 and many, but not all, services provided by Schwab will benefit Clients. In fulfilling its duties to its Clients, Figure 8 endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits from a custodian creates a potential conflict of interest since these benefits may influence Figure 8's recommendation of this custodian over one that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services.

Services that Benefit the Client – Schwab's institutional brokerage services include access to a broad range of investment products, execution of securities transactions, and custody of Client's funds and securities. Through Schwab, Figure 8 may be able to access certain investments and asset classes that the Client would not be able to obtain directly or through other sources. Further, Figure 8 may be able to invest in certain mutual funds and other investments without having to adhere to investment minimums that might be required if the Client were to directly access the investments.

Services that May Indirectly Benefit the Client – Schwab provides participating advisors with access to technology, research, discounts and other services. In addition, Figure 8 receives duplicate statements for Client accounts, the ability to deduct advisory fees, trading tools, and back office support services as part of its relationship with Schwab. These services are intended to assist Figure 8 in effectively managing accounts for its Clients, but may not directly benefit all Clients.

Services that May Only Benefit the Advisor – Schwab also offers other services to Figure 8 that may not benefit the Client, including: educational conferences and events, consulting services and discounts for various service providers. Access to these services creates a financial incentive for Figure 8 to recommend Schwab, which results in a potential conflict of interest. Figure 8 believes, however, that the selection of Schwab as Custodian is in the best interests of its Clients.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

Item 15 – Custody

Figure 8 does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of Figure 8's fees, as provided by the Client by executing the advisory agreement. All Clients must place their assets with a "qualified custodian". Clients are required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Figure 8 to utilize the Custodian for the Client's security transactions. Clients should review statements provided by the Custodian and compare to any reports provided by Figure 8 to ensure accuracy, as the Custodian does not perform this review. Figure 8 shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the beginning of the respective quarter-end date. The amount due is calculated by applying the quarterly rate (annual rate divided by 4) to the total assets under management with Figure 8 at the end of the prior quarter. In addition, Figure 8's Quarterly Report, delivered to Clients following the end of each quarter, includes an itemization of the fee, including the calculation period covered by the fee, the account value and the methodology used to calculate the fee. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see Item 12 - Brokerage Practices.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Figure 8 generally has discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by Figure 8. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an investment advisory agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by Figure 8 will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Figure 8 will vote proxies on behalf of its Clients as each Client has delegated that authority to Figure 8 in their contract agreement. When Figure 8 accepts such responsibility, it will only cast proxy votes in a manner consistent with the best interest of its Clients. Absent special circumstances, all proxies will be voted consistent with guidelines established and described in Figure 8's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures, as they may be amended from time-to-time. Figure 8 understands its duty to vote Client proxies and to do so in the best interest of Clients. Furthermore, it is understood that any material conflicts between Figure 8's interests and Clients with regard to proxy voting must be resolved before proxies are voted. Clients may request a copy of Figure 8's written policies and procedures regarding proxy voting and/or information on how particular proxies were voted by contacting Figure 8's Chief Compliance Officer, Lisa Cooper.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither Figure 8, nor Ms. Cooper have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of Figure 8 to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither Figure 8, nor any of its Advisory Persons have been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. Figure 8 is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure as Figure 8 does not collect fees of $500 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Item 19 – Requirements for State Registered Advisors

A. Educational Background and Business Experience of Principal Officer

The Principal Officer and Chief Compliance Officer of Figure 8 is Lisa M. Cooper. Information regarding the formal education and background of Ms. Cooper is included in Item 2 of her Form ADV Part 2B below.

B. Other Business Activities of Principal Officer

Board Membership

Ms. Cooper, in her separate capacity, serves on the board of MoFi, a charitable organization whose mission is to provide financing and consulting services that transform the lives of individuals and strengthen community prosperity. MoFi is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is certified by the US Treasury Department as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). MoFi issues simple promissory notes which may be recommended to Clients.

Prior to recommending investments in MoFi, Figure 8 will conduct appropriate due diligence to ensure any recommendation to a Client to invest aligns with the Client's investment needs and objectives. In addition, Figure 8 will provide additional disclosure information to each Client, which will include relevant details regarding the board membership arrangement. Finally, there is no requirement for Figure 8 to recommend an investment in MoFi to Clients, nor are Clients obligated to invest. Ms. Cooper spends 2 hours per month in her role as a board member.

C. Performance Fee Calculations

Figure 8 does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Figure 8 are as described in Item 5 – Fees and Compensation above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

D. Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Figure 8 or Ms. Cooper of Figure 8. Neither Figure 8 or Ms. Cooper of Figure 8 have been involved in any regulatory or criminal action. There have been no Client complaints, lawsuits, arbitration claims or administrative proceedings against Figure 8 or Ms. Cooper of Figure 8.

Securities laws require an advisor to disclose any instances where the advisor or its advisory persons have been found liable in a legal, regulatory, civil or arbitration matter that alleges violation of securities and other statutes; fraud; false statements or omissions; theft, embezzlement or wrongful taking of property; bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; and/or dishonest, unfair or unethical practices. As previously noted, there are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Figure 8 or Ms. Cooper of Figure 8.

E. Material Relationships with Issuers of Securities

Neither Figure 8 or Ms. Cooper of Figure 8 have any relationships or arrangements with issuers of securities.

Chartered Financial Analyst® (“CFA®”)

The Chartered Financial Analyst (“CFA”) charter is a professional designation established in 1962 and awarded by the CFA Institute. To earn the CFA charter, candidates must pass three sequential, six-hour examinations over two to four years. The three levels of the CFA Program test a wide range of investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed-income analysis, alternative and derivative investments, and portfolio management and wealth planning. In addition, CFA charterholders must have at least four years of acceptable professional experience in the investment decision-making process and must commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct. Chartered Financial Analyst and CFA are trademarks owned by CFA Institute.

Certified Financial Planner™, (“CFP®”)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP® (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with Clients. Currently, more than 71,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the US.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP® Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP® Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and Client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their Clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP® Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Ms. Cooper. Ms. Cooper has never been involved in any regulatory or criminal action. There have been no Client complaints, lawsuits, arbitration claims or administrative proceedings against Ms. Cooper.

Securities laws require an advisor to disclose any instances where the advisor or its advisory persons have been found liable in a legal, regulatory, civil or arbitration matter that alleges violation of securities and other statutes; fraud; false statements or omissions; theft, embezzlement or wrongful taking of property; bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; and/or dishonest, unfair or unethical practices. As previously noted, there are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Ms. Cooper. However, we do encourage you to independently view the background of Ms. Cooper on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec by searching with her full name or her Individual CRD# 2407967.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Board Membership

Ms. Cooper, in her separate capacity, serves on the board of Mofi, a charitable organization whose mission is to provide financing and consulting services that transform the lives of individuals and strengthen community prosperity. MoFi is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is certified by the US Treasury Department as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). MoFi issues simple promissory notes which may be recommended to Clients.

Prior to recommending investments in MoFi, Figure 8 will conduct appropriate due diligence to ensure any recommendation to a Client to invest aligns with the Client’s investment needs and objectives. In addition, Figure 8 will provide additional disclosure information to each Client, which will include relevant details regarding the board membership arrangement. Finally, there is no requirement for Figure 8 to recommend an investment in MoFi to Clients, nor are Clients obligated to invest. Ms. Cooper spends 2 hours per month in her role as a board member.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Ms. Cooper has additional business activities that are detailed in Item 4 above. Ms. Cooper does not receive any compensation for performing advisory services other than what is disclosed in Item 4.

Item 6 – Supervision

Privacy Policy

Effective: June 11, 2019

Our Commitment to You

Figure 8 Investment Strategies LLC ("Figure 8" or the "Advisor") is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Clients (also referred to as "you" and "your") that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy ("Policy").

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. Figure 8 (also referred to as "we", "our" and "us") protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

Figure 8 does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors ("RIAs") must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

What information do we collect from you?

Driver's license number	Date of birth
Social security or taxpayer identification number	Assets and liabilities
Name, address and phone number[s]	Income and expenses
E-mail address[es]	Investment activity
Account information (including other institutions)	Investment experience and goals

What Information do we collect from other sources?

Custody, brokerage and advisory agreements	Account applications and forms
Other advisory agreements and legal documents	Investment questionnaires and suitability documents
Transactional information with us or others	Other information needed to service account

How do we protect your information?

To safeguard your personal information from unauthorized access and use we maintain physical, procedural and electronic security measures. These include such safeguards as secure passwords, encrypted file storage and a secure office environment. Our technology vendors provide security and access control over personal information and have policies over the transmission of data. Our associates are trained on their responsibilities to protect Client's personal information.

We require third parties that assist in providing our services to you to protect the personal information they receive from us.

How do we share your information?

An RIA shares Client personal information to effectively implement its services. In the section below, we list some reasons we may share your personal information.

Basis For Sharing	Do we share?	Can you limit?
Servicing our Clients We may share non-public personal information with non-affiliated third parties (such as administrators, brokers, custodians, regulators, credit agencies, other financial institutions) as necessary for us to provide agreed upon services to you, consistent with applicable law, including but not limited to: processing transactions; general account maintenance; responding to regulators or legal investigations; and credit reporting.	Yes	No
Marketing Purposes Figure 8 does not disclose, and does not intend to disclose, personal information with non-affiliated third parties to offer you services. Certain laws may give us the right to share your personal information with financial institutions where you are a customer and where Figure 8 or the Client has a formal agreement with the financial institution. We will only share information for purposes of servicing your accounts, not for marketing purposes.	No	Not Shared
Authorized Users Your non-public personal information may be disclosed to you and persons that we believe to be your authorized agent[s] or representative[s].	Yes	Yes
Information About Former Clients Figure 8 does not disclose and does not intend to disclose, non-public personal information to non-affiliated third parties with respect to persons who are no longer our Clients.	No	Not Shared

State-specific Regulations

California	In response to a California law, to be conservative, we assume accounts with California addresses do not want us to disclose personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties, except as permitted by California law. We also limit the sharing of personal information about you with our affiliates to ensure compliance with California privacy laws.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We will send you a copy of this Policy annually for as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us.

Periodically we may revise this Policy, and will provide you with a revised policy if the changes materially alter the previous Privacy Policy. We will not, however, revise our Privacy Policy to permit the sharing of non-public personal information other than as described in this notice unless we first notify you and provide you with an opportunity to prevent the information sharing.

Any Questions?

You may ask questions or voice any concerns, as well as obtain a copy of our current Privacy Policy by contacting us at (208) 385-0078 or via email at info@figure8investing.com.
